Stomach Trouble? Are You Nervous?

Why Not Enjoy Perfect Health?

Winston-Salem, N. C.—"I suffered for about eight months with nervous indigestion, and had several doctors to see me but found no relief until a friend suggested Dr. Pierce's Medicines. I was not able to sleep at night and could not eat, just lived on sweet milk and bread. I began to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and took one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, with wonderful relief. I am now past 40, but feel just as I did at 19. I also gave the Discovery to my children, and now I am giving it to my grandchildren."

"You will always find a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in my home, and I will recommend it to anyone suffering from nervousness."

Geo. W. Tye is suffering from a swollen jaw, not because he invited someone to a mix-up or even thru jaw strain due to rhetorical efforts, but because a little hair coily concealed itself beneath the epidermis. He went twice to the tonsorial surgeon and on his second visit failed on the iodine treatment. As a consequence the jaw became as prognathous as that of a prize fighter and had to be drawn and quartered by a really surgeon. The moral is that the small things of life may cause more trouble than the bigger things.

LIVE STOCK IN KNOX COUNTY

Compared with the year 1921 Knox County, according to the Agricultural Department, Washington, shows the following percentages of livestock on our farms: Horses and mules, 100; cows, 100; other, 85; sheep, 75; hogs, 100. Therefore there has been a loss of 15 per cent in "other" and 25 per cent in sheep raising. The latter is regrettable inasmuch as our hill lands are admirably adapted to sheep and goats. We believe it to be a fact that a farmer with plenty of range and employing a herder could stock up with goats of the good milk class and by converting the milk into goat cheese, make big money. We have in mind an Italian in Colorado who from a herd of some 400 goats had $5,000 worth of cheese stored away in his rock cheese house.

A REAL TRAGEDY

There was a little mouse
That ran around a house;
Just the cutest little feller
Without a streak of yellow.
He found a nice new match
His teeth were fine to scratch;
It burned his little jaw
Also his right front paw.
The fire burned the house
Where dwelt the little mouse.
The man who owned it fussed,
And some say that he cursed.
The moral is get a cat and some real fire insurance and stay happy.
